GENERAL AGREEMENT ON TARIFFS AND TRADE

SCHEDULE I - AUSTRALIA

SCHEDULE I - AUSTRALIA

1. Only the English text of this Schedule is authentic.
2. Concessions in this Schedule replace all previous concessions in Schedule I.
3. Unless otherwise specified, where a complete article is excluded from a concession, the parts or accessories for that article are also excluded.
4. Parts and accessories for use as components in the original assembly of highway motor vehicles are not included in any rate concession.
5. Where the classification of goods involves interpretative judgement, such judgement shall rest with the competent Australian authority.
6. When the expression "as prescribed by by-law" qualifies a concession, the Government of Australia remains free to make, amend or revoke the relevant by-laws.
7. Products described in the Schedule shall be exempt from ordinary customs duties in excess of those set forth and provided for therein, and shall be exempt from all other duties or charges of any kind imposed on or in connection with importation.
8. Rates set forth in this Schedule are exclusive of any charges imposed in accordance with paragraph 2(a) of Article II.
9. Concessions established in accordance with the Geneva (1979) Protocol are subject to the provisions and reservations set forth in that Protocol.
10. Concessions in this Schedule are accorded on the premises that trading partners observe the general provisions of the General Agreement; Australia reserves the right, consistent with the General Agreement, to deny to any trading partner not complying with the provisions of the General Agreement and whose conduct is deemed prejudicial to Australia's trading opportunities the benefits and privileges arising under Article II.
11. For the purpose of Article I and Article II of the General Agreement, the margin of preference under a tariff classification properly applicable to any product shall not be increased above the level actually in existence on 1 January 1973, or as subsequently negotiated; provided that in certain circumstances the introduction of a 10% margin in lieu of a previously existing 7.5% margin shall be permissible, and provided further that this concession shall not preclude adjustments of a minor order necessary to achieve simplified or reasonable tariff drafting, when such adjustments shall result in a margin no higher than 10%.
